SOLARIO RACING

A NEW BREED OF RACEHORSE SYNDICATION

SOLARIO RACING

Welcome to Solario Racing... A New Breed of Racehorse Syndication formed in 2010 by Simon Double with owners Troy Attwood, Simon Coggon, Jason Neville and Malcolm Edwards.

We have been delighted with the response during our first two years and have strengthened our string with two more youngsters, both purchased at Doncaster's Premier Yearling Sales. They comprise a really strong looking scopey chestnut colt by Rebellion and a beautifully bred filly by Amadeus Wolf.

Purchased for £16,000, the colt is by first season sire Rebellion, who was trained by Mark Johnston before going to America where he won two Group races over 7f before coming second in a Breeder's Cup over a mile. The dam was a three-time winner and this, her first progeny, is a February foal from the family of 1,000 Guineas winner, Hatoof.

Amadeus Wolf was a high class sprinter, winner of the Gimcrack and the Group One Middle Park Stakes. The dam was a dual winner for Sir Henry Cecil and has produced seven winners from eight runners. This filly is from one of Lord Howard de Walden's home-bred families which includes Pursuit Of Love, Champion 3yo sprinter in Europe.

Both horses have been purchased with a view to racing at two but having the scope to train on at three. They have been competitively priced in 1/12th shares and we hope will give their owners a lot of enjoyment and success on the racecourse.

Solario Racing is always looking to expand its offering to owners and we are delighted to have two trainers on board for 2013 - Martin Bosley in Chalfont St Giles, Buckinghamshire and Paul Webber at Cropredy, Oxon. Both are dual-purpose trainers with 200-acre private training establishments, boasting superb gallops and facilities for training thoroughbreds.

Solario Racing offers quality bloodstock, excellent communication and superb hospitality...personal and professional racehorse syndication at an affordable price.

Finally, thank you to our advertisers for their support and we wish their respective businesses every success.

MARTIN BOSLEY

Martin was a successful National Hunt jockey during the 80s and 90s riding winners for top trainers, Henrietta Knight, David Elsworth and the late Captain Tim Forster. Pommaryd, Cool Ground and Island Jewel, a top-staying hurdler whom he steered to five victories for his father, John Bosley were among the best horses he rode.

A dual purpose trainer, who took over from his well respected father in 1997, Martin is a real horseman with an intuitive feel for the racehorse. He moved to the 200-acre 56 box Bowstridge Farm in Chalfont St Giles, Bucks. with his wife and Assistant Trainer, Sarah in 2009 and they have doubled the string since their arrival.

The yard boasts a superb six furlong all-weather equitrack gallop with an additional two furlong circular trotting/canter all weather track, a large indoor school, an eight-berth automatic horse walker, turnout paddocks and starting stalls.

Martin enthused: "Racing's in my blood and I'm confident with the facilities and team we have in place, we will make a real success of Bowstridge Farm."

RACING MANAGER, SIMON DOUBLE

Simon has a wealth of experience in the racing industry having been managing successful racing syndicates since 1994.

He cut his teeth with partnership pioneer, Peter Harris, after which he co-founded Pat Eddery Racing. After over six years with the former 11-times Champion Jockey, he successfully launched Harwoods Racing Club before setting up Solario Racing in 2010.

He has been associated with purchasing many good horses at the sales, including multiple winners, Arachnophobia, Hidden Glory, Desert Recluse and Group One winner, Hearts Of Fire.

Bought for just £13,000 in 2008, Hearts Of Fire won the Brocklesby and went on to win at Listed, Group 3 and Group 1 level in France, Germany and Italy respectively. Third at Royal Ascot in the Group One St James' Palace as a 3yo, he won over £300,000 in prize money for his syndicate owners and was sold for £577,500 at Newmarket's prestigious Horses in Training Sale in October 2010, the second highest ever figure at that sale.

PAUL WEBBER

Paul holds a dual purpose licence at Cropredy Lawn, a fabulous 200-acre private training establishment near Banbury in Oxfordshire. Like Martin, he took over from his father in 1995 and he has developed some of the best state-of-the-art facilities in the country. They include a seven furlong oval grass gallop, a six and a half furlong all-weather surface, an indoor school, jumping lane, equine pool and a water walk, which comprises a natural stream for the horses to walk through after morning exercise.

He is fast heading towards 500 wins and horses such as the exciting Australia Day have won on the flat and over hurdles and fences. "While most of my winners have been over the jumps including victories at Aintree, I've yet to have a Cheltenham Festival winner but have had two winners at Royal Ascot!" remarked the Master of Cropredy Lawn.

HOSPITALITY

Looking after owners both on and off the racecourse is part of the Solario Racing philosophy.

Therefore, we regularly arrange not only hospitality days for our owners at the stables but days out at some of the major domestic race meetings such as Ascot, Goodwood and Newbury or abroad at Deauville or Longchamp.

These days at the races will be organised specifically for our owners and their friends. We will arrange everything from private boxes, badges and light buffets to champagne receptions, four course lunches and celebrity racing tipsters.

We know that many owners have wide-ranging sporting and cultural interests, so we will be arranging days out which go beyond horse racing. So, whether it's a round of golf at Hanbury Manor, a leisurely day's Test cricket at Lord's or an evening of fine dining...

we will arrange and organise a calendar of events to suit all tastes.

Each event will be personally supervised by members of Solario Racing who will be there to ensure you truly have a day or night to remember.
