SYNDICATE 2018/20

PERSONAL RACEHORSE SYNDICATION

WWW.SOLARIORACING.COM

Welcome to Solario Racing... a racehorse syndication company which specialises in partnerships.

Formed in 2010 and based in Hertfordshire, the company is run by Racing Manager, Simon Double, who has over 24 years' experience in managing syndicates at the highest level.

What a year the syndicate owners have enjoyed in 2018! Spring Romance won four times, was second twice and had a fourth from seven starts while Don't Look Down was in the Winners' Enclosure in all his four races, so every run earned prize money!

Solario Racing has its horses in training with Group One-winning trainer, Dean Ivory, in Radlett, Hertfordshire. The Home Counties' leading trainer, the stable has won nearly £3 million in prize money over the last five seasons. The secluded 115-acre private training establishment boasts superb gallops and state-of-the art modern facilities for training thoroughbreds.

Racing Manager, Simon Double, was again busy at the Newmarket sales where he purchased a lovely yearling by Group One winning sire, Garswood, out of a mare who has already produced five individual winners from seven runners.

The horse is being syndicated in 1/12th shares for two seasons. He was purchased with a view to running at two but having the scope and pedigree to train on at three.

Solario Racing offers quality bloodstock, excellent communication and superb hospitality...
personal and professional racehorse syndication at an affordable price.

Thank you to our advertisers,
The Royal Veterinary College, Rayden Solicitors and The Diamond Trust.

RACING MANAGER, SIMON DOUBLE

Simon has a wealth of experience in the racing industry, having been managing successful racing syndicates at the highest level for 24 years. He cut his teeth with partnership pioneer, Peter Harris, after which he co-founded Pat Eddery Racing with the former 11-times champion jockey. He then successfully launched Harwoods Racing Club before setting up his own company, Solario Racing in 2010.

Besides managing syndicates at Group One level (Primo Valentino and Hearts Of Fire) Simon has been associated with purchasing many good horses at the sales, including multiple winners, Spring Romance, Arachnophobia, Hidden Glory, Storm Hawk, Desert Recluse and indeed Hearts Of Fire.

Purchased for just £13,000 in 2008, Hearts Of Fire won the Brocklesby and went on to win at Listed, Group 3 and Group 1 level in France, Germany and Italy respectively. Third at Royal Ascot in the Group One St James' Palace Stakes as a 3yo, he won over £300,000 in prize money for his syndicate owners and was sold for £577,500 at Newmarket's prestigious Horses in Training Sale in October 2010, the fourth highest ever figure at that sale.

Solario Racing has enjoyed plenty of success on the racecourse in recent years. Red Cossack was a winner and placed numerous times and in 2018 Spring Romance and Don't Look Down had a fabulous season. In 11 races between them, they recorded four wins, four seconds, a third and two fourths and they were always in the prize money!

"There is sure to be more to come from Spring Romance and Don't Look Down as 4yos and the Garswood colt is a strong addition to the team. He has the physique, pedigree and temperament to make the grade as a 2yo and go on as an older horse."

DEAN IVORY

Dean took over the training licence from his father, Ken Ivory, in 2002 and the winners have continued to flow from Harper Lodge Farm ever since. He has already trained over 450 winners and the stable goes from strength to strength.

2017 was a record season with over £900,000 in prize money earned. Stable star, Librisa Breeze won the Group One Sprint on Champions Day at Ascot and Lancelot Du Lac won the Stewards' Cup at Glorious Goodwood under Frankie Dettori. While 2018 hasn't quite reached those dizzy heights, it's still been another good season with over £1/2 million in prize money for the fourth year in a row.

The 115-acre private training establishment has some 60 horses in training, with superb facilities for training the modern thoroughbred. To accommodate the doubling of horses in the last few years, ten new spacious stables have been added together with a large indoor school.

The gallop is a state-of-the-art all-weather surface over a mile and horses can work in either direction, left or right-handed. Other training facilities include a very large round all-weather trotting ring, a ménage, an undercover horse walker, plenty of turn-out paddocks with shelter and an equine spa.

Dean's quiet but confident and considered approach in both training the horses and communicating with owners filters down to all the staff and there is a very warm, friendly but professional atmosphere at Harper Lodge.

Having started off as an owner himself, Dean knows the importance of communication: "Relationships with owners are important to me because as an owner, I learnt that this personal liaison makes so much difference."

"I enjoy training for Solarior Racing as Simon and I work well together. I am delighted with their exciting new purchase, a real good looker with a pedigree to match. Simon has bought him well at 15,000 guineas and the yard is hoping he's the new Spring Romance!"

HOSPITALITY

Looking after owners both on and off the racecourse is part of the Solario Racing philosophy.

Therefore, we regularly arrange not only hospitality days for our owners at the stables but days out at some of the major domestic race meetings such as Ascot, Goodwood and Newbury or abroad at Deauville or Longchamp.

These days at the races will be organised specifically for our owners and their friends. We will arrange everything from private boxes, badges and light buffets to champagne receptions, four course lunches and celebrity racing tipsters.

We know that many owners have wide-ranging sporting and cultural interests, so we can arrange days out which go beyond horse racing, such as a morning on the golf course, a leisurely afternoon at the cricket or an evening of fine dining.

For those who run their own business, Solario Racing can also arrange days out for clients or team building days for employees. We specialise in arranging bespoke horse racing events which can combine a champagne tour of Dean Ivory's stables with a day out at the races.

Tailored to your specific requirements, each event will be personally supervised by Solario Racing, who will be there to ensure you have a day or night out to remember.
